

Research on folk culture lesson of human service is being taught.

Feeling of Patriotism in the Universities Campus

The Governor Shri Kalyan Singh is making a comparative study of religious books of all four religions

Jaipur, 24 January. Voice of patriotism is flowing in the premises of state universities of Rajasthan. Display of National flag in the Universities and idol of Swami Vivekanand are imbuing feelings of patriotism in youths. Boys and Girls felt proud while taking medals and degrees in national dresses during convocation ceremony. Nationalism is persisting in each university, attributable to their 'Kulgeet' coupled with ambience of profound folk culture and cultural diversities.

Students are being taught lesson of human service, connecting them to the villages. Efforts are being made to bring qualitative improvements in research, establishing idols of prominent personalities of that locality. The qualitative improvements in the higher education in the state is owing to the efforts made by Shri Kalyan Singh, Governor who is Chancellor of the Universities. Flowers of nationalism and humanity are blossoming in the premises of the universities of state on account of initiatives taken and efforts made by Shri Kalyan Singh.

Cleanliness, regular classes, examinations as per schedule, timely results and convocation ceremonies have transformed the higher education in the state in a positive manner. Grievances of deprived, handicapped and neglected segments are being redressed because the Governor Shri Kalyan Singh himself is to listen to them. Following this, the vice chancellors of the universities have also started to listen to the grievances of students and make efforts to redress them. Concrete positive efforts are being made in the direction that future of any student may not remain in dark and his life may be provided a new direction. A congenial environment of study has developed in the universities. Libraries are being computerized.

Shri Kalyan Singh himself is involved in continuous study. For the last few months, he is making a comparison of religious books of Hindu, Muslim, Sikh and Christian religions. He is also making a comparative study of Ramayan, Mahabharat, Quran, Gurugranth sahib, Bible and Satyarthprakash. Conclusion derived by him shall provide benefit to society, state and nation.

At present, there is no degree pending for distribution in any of the Universities in the state. The Governor Shri Kalyan Singh has issued directions to all vice chancellors of the universities to develop communication between teachers and students, celebrate birth anniversaries of eminent personalities and national festivals so as to bring harmony, coordination and fraternity. Benches have been constituted in the universities to conduct research on culture. The result of research and investigations in near future shall yield benefits to the society.

Dr. Lokesh Chandra Sharma
PRO to Governor of Rajasthan