CONSTITUTION OF RAJYA/ZILA SAINIK BOARDS

1. It is noted with concern that some of the States of late have adopted non-standard constitution of Rajya and Zila Sainik Boards. Some of these aberrations are likely to have an adverse impact on the decision making process of these Boards with long term implications for the Resettlement and Welfare of Ex-Servicemen of the State.
2. You are, therefore, advised to adhere to the constitution of the Boards as recommended by the High Level Committee (1984) and approved by the Govt. Relevant copy of the extract from the Report is enclosed for your information and compliance.

Subject : CONSTITUTION OF RAJYA & ZILA SAINIK BOARDS

1. A number of queries have been raised by some States at various times in regard to the constitution/composition of the Rajya & Zila Sainik Boards, tenure of non-official members etc. This letter is, therefore, being issued with a view of clarify the position.
2. In accordance with the decision taken at the Xth Meeting of the Kendriya Sainik Board held on 09 Jan 1975 the Sainik Board Organisation is responsible for resettlement of ex-Servicemen besides their traditional welfare tasks. Therefore, wherever the constitution of Rajya and Zila Sainik Boards are desired to be reviewed, this aspect may be kept in view and officials of Government Department dealing with employment, industries, co-operatives and other developmental activities may need to be inducted as ex-officio members on the Boards.
3. Governor of the State is normally the President of the Rajya Sainik Board otherwise the Chief Minister is nominated as the President and the GOC-in-C Commands in which the State is located is the Vice-President. F.O's/AOs C-in-C Command may be included as additional Vice-Presidents as has been done by some States. If for any reason the GOC-in-C is unable to attend the meeting he will send a representative not below the rank of Brigadier. The representative will, however, not act as Vice-President.
4. As for the non-official members, these may include ex-Servicemen (both ex-Officers and JCOs/ORs) who are known to take an active and keen interest in matter of recruitment to the Armed Forces and welfare & resettlement of ex-Servicemen and their families, prominent industrialists/financiers/social welfare workers/Members of State Legislature etc.
5. Non-official members should normally be nominated for a period of not more than three years. In regard to the tenure of members of the State Legislature nominated as non-official members of the Boards, they may be allowed to continue for so long as they retain their seats on the State legislature or the terms of the State legislature itself whichever is earlier.

6. Please acknowledge.
